

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

ALL THE NEWS THAT'S FIT TO PRINT.

VOL. XXVIII.

CLOVERPORT, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1903.

8 Pages

NO. 20

WHAT'S DOING IN OLD PERRY.

Wm. Gilliland, of Derby, Commits Suicide--Lafe Elder Recoverin' g.

DEATH OF MRS. GEORGE POLK.

Wm. Gilliland, of Derby, Ind., committed suicide at Tell City last Wednesday by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a pocket knife. The deed was committed Wednesday but Gilliland did not die until Thursday, the knife being too dull to make a very deep wound. The remains were taken to Derby on Thursday for burial. Gilliland was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Doughty, of Tell City. He had been acting strangely all day and had been affecting his brain. The deed was committed in an outbuilding. Gilliland owns a farm near Derby and leaves a wife and one child. He is thirty-two years of age.

Lafe Elder Will Live.

Lafe Elder, who was shot near Derby week before last, is much improved and will recover. Willie Elder, who is suspected of having fired the shot and is out on a $1,000 bond, will have his preliminary hearing before Squire Tate next Monday. It is understood that the Elders of Breckenridge county are much wrought up over the shooting.

Death of Mrs. Geo. Polk.

The remains of Mrs. Geo. Polk, of Toltinsport, Ind., died Tuesday morning of last week of cancer of the stomach, were buried there Wednesday. The funeral was preached by Rev. J. F. Winchell, of the Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member. People from both Perry and Toltinsport counties attended the funeral.

Mrs. Polk had been ill for some time. She leaves a husband and several children. She is also survived by several brothers and sisters, who reside in Breckenridge county. She was formerly a Mrs. Crow and her maiden name was Lynch.

Incendiaries Still at Large.

The person or persons who fired Wm. Sudarth's barn, in Toltinsport, are still at large. It is still talked that the reward of $100 for their apprehension should be increased, so that experienced detectives will take up the matter and rid the community of the nuisance. It is said that there is $300 in the treasury of the Perry County Protective Farmers' insurance company set aside for this purpose.

Of Value and Interest.

Every farmer in Perry and Breckenridge counties should feel it his duty to attend the Perry County Farmers' Institute, which meets at the high school building in Toltinsport, Ind., next Friday and Saturday. The program published in last week's News contained a list of subjects of value and interest to the farmer that will be discussed, and the good people of Toltinsport will see that every one who attends will enjoy himself. Every farmer who possibly can, should attend.

To My Patrons.

I will be away several months taking a special course in surgery. Any one wishing to make payments on their account will please settle with Short & Haynes, who have my books. My address will be 3708 Dayton St., St. Louis, Mo., care St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons. Write me if I can be of any service to you.

Respectfully
F. L. Lightfoot.

Rumors From Hardinsburg

Hardinsburg, Ky., Dec. 1.—Special.—Dr. Milton Board, Jr., was in Frankfort last week. It is rumored that he will be appointed by the Governor to a good position, the first of the year. It is said that Gen. David R. Murray has handed the Governor his resignation to take effect Dec. 9, and that he will remove to this place, where he will resume the practice of law.

BAPTISTS ARE RE-ORGANIZED.

The Breckenridge Association of Baptists Name of the New Association.

WILL MEET FIRST AT GOSHEN.

Delegates from the Baptist churches of Breckenridge county met in convention at the Clover creek church last Friday and Saturday for the purpose of organizing a new association. The following churches, with their letters from the Goshen and Salem associations, represented: Clover Creek, Goshen, Hardinsburg, Hite's Run, Corinth, Garfield, Friendship, Irvington, Lost Run, New Bethel, Stephens, Walnut Grove and Cloverport.

At the morning session on Friday Rev. H. B. White, of Goshen association, was called to the chair as moderator and Rev. John F. Winchell, of Perry county (Ind.), association, was elected clerk. Rev. Everett English was then called on by the moderator and he led earnestly in prayer, asking for the presence and guidance of the Lord in the deliberations of the meeting.

After the invocation, the temporary orders were made permanent. Letters from all the aforesaid churches were read, and, on motion, all delegates present from other associations were invited to sit in council with the twelve churches.

Suitable articles of faith and a constitution to govern the new association were adopted, and all other business leading up to the organization of the association was taken up and passed on. Then all present were invited on the outside of the church, where the ladies had prepared an excellent dinner for them.

Friday afternoon the association was called to order by Rev. White, who announced the body of work for the election of moderator and clerk. Several brethren were put in nomination for each office and votes of the messengers were cast with tellers appointed to receive them. Rev. W. V. Harrel, of Hardinsburg, was elected moderator and C. M. Payne, of Harrel, was elected clerk. Both then came forward and assumed their respective duties, and business of the new association was proceeded with. The place named for the next meeting was Goshen church at Goshen. The name given the new Association was the Breckenridge association of Baptists. After appointing committees and attending to some other business the association adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock Saturday to complete their work.

The meeting Saturday was not as important as that Friday, only business of a minor nature being before the association.

Largest Transcript Completed.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Dec. 1.—Special.—Circuit Court Clerk W. S. Ball has just completed the transcript in the case of L. Green vs. Dr. J. H. Hart, which has been appealed by Col. Green. It is by far the largest transcript ever made out from the Breckenridge circuit court. It consists of 450 pages of typewritten matter of more than 200,000 words. Attorney James S. Wootton, of counsel for the plaintiff, was liberal in his praise of Mr. Ball's work, especially as regards its neatness and accuracy.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold.
Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, No Pay. Price, 25c.

Applicant For Commissioner

Hardinsburg, Ky., Dec. 1.—(Special.)—Mr. R. S. Skillman is an applicant for the position of Master Commissioner of the Breckenridge circuit court. The appointment is to be made at the next February term of court and the power of appointment resides with the circuit judge, Wood S. Cheif.

Will Go to Housekeeping.

Mrs. Jessie Eskridge, who has been visiting her father and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Eskridge, of Hardinsburg, has returned to her home in Owensboro. Mr. and Mrs. Eskridge will go to housekeeping and will occupy flats on 5th street, near Fredrick.

HIS PERSONAL ACCOUNT.

Not long ago a man high in finance and conspicuous before the country lost his reputation, was uncovered as a blackmailer and bunco-steerer on a large scale who was trafficking upon his good name. On every side one heard the remark: "Yes, his lost reputation. But what does he care? Hasn't he got money by the barrel full? Not a door will be closed against him; not an acquaintance will be less friendly."

There is much truth in this—much surface truth. But get below the surface, study the elements that make up the substance of reputation and of character, and what seemed so mournfully true seems utterly false. The principles of morality are the principles of sound policy, too, as the human race has learned through the ages. These accounts in "consequences" are not made up in a moment or in the public highway. But they are made up. And all realize this solemn truth who do not fancy they know a man's life through and through because they see him in public now and then, or read his public acts. A man's life has other and better ways of meeting out justice than such conditions as taking away a man's money—leaving it to him may be far more effectual. Nor does destiny deal with individuals for the purpose of making a gallery play. It does not care for applause or for condemnation. Silently and privately it deals with each man. And it is not often cheated.—Saturday Evening Post.

KENTUCKIANS IN CONGRESS.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Speaker Cannon has virtually decided where to place the members of the Kentucky delegation in the matter of committee assignments. According to information obtained the Bluegrass Representatives will be assigned as follows:

Ollie M. James, First district, Committee on Elections, Augustus O. Stanley, Second district, Mines and Mining, John S. Rheu, Third district, Banking and Currency, Probably David H. Smith, Fourth district, Judiciary, Swager Sherley, Fifth district, Revision of the Laws, Daniel L. Gooch, Sixth district, District of Columbia, South Trimble, Seventh district, Claims, George G. Gilbert, Eighth district, Private Land Claims and Labor.

J. N. Kehoe, Ninth district, Foreign Affairs, Frank A. Hopkins, Tenth district, Invalid Pensions. The friends of Representative Sherley, the Louisville member, had hoped he would get on the Rivers and Harbors Committee, but the fact that he was a new member alone militated against him. As a member of the Committee on Elections, Ollie James will be able to sit in judgment on the election case which will come up from the Eleventh Kentucky district. Representative Kehoe has landed on very desirable committee, Foreign Affairs. When Senator McCreary was in the House the last time he was chairman of that committee.

THE THUNDERBIRD ON TRUSTS.

The Hon. John Wesley Gaines, the Tennessee Thunderbird, is pouncing on the Octopus again. He has introduced into the House of Representatives a bill excluding from the use of mails for any purpose of their business any firm, association, corporation or persons "associated or combined for any, either or all" of certain nefarious objects enumerated in the bill.

First, "to abolish, abridge, or in any wise affect open and free competition in trade or exclude rivalry between the parties thereto," etc. Thus, if two storekeepers in Christian county, Tenn., go into partnership, the rural delivery carrier can't take their mail, at least until he has read it.

Second, "to create or promote any restrictions in trade or commerce, or to limit or restrict production of any article or commodity of trade unduly to affect the market." What becomes of the associations of cotton planters and farmers, who are trying to combine for the restriction of production?

Third, "to affect the wages of employees of themselves or others," etc. What becomes of the labor unions?

Fourth, "to diminish the product of labor and skill in order to increase the price thereof." Once more, what becomes of the labor unions?

Fifth, "to create monopoly or do that which tends thereto." But for an inventor who gets capitalists to back his patent.

But we have followed far enough in the tracks of the Thunderbird. The penalty for violation of this entertaining act is a fine of not less than $5,000 and imprisonment for not less than a year. Grand juries are to have "inquisitorial powers to inquire into violations of this act." It will be much better to give the carrier and postmaster power to read all letters that come into their hands.

The cynical may suspect that the Hon. John Wesley Gaines is a humorist, who seeks to reduce trust-busting to the absurd. The cynical are wrong. The Hon. John Wesley Gaines is as solemn as a Thunderbird ought to be.—New York Sun.

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS.

Mr. W. E. Brown and Miss Claudia Stith Are Married at the Willard Hotel.

DOWDEN--WITTMER WEDDING.

Irvington, Ky., Dec. 1.—(Special.)—In the parlors of the Willard Hotel in Louisville, on last Saturday at 10:30 o'clock, Mr. W. E. Brown, a prominent merchant of this place, and Miss Claudia Stith, of that city but formerly Breckenridge county, were married after the ceremony was performed a light lunch was served to the guests and then the bridal party left on the noon train for Paradise, Ky., to visit Mr. Brown's father, Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be at home to their friends in Irvington Dec. 2.

DOWDEN--WITTMER.

Well-Known and Popular Young People Married at Cannelton Wednesday Afternoon.

Mr. Darnell Dowden, of this city, and Miss Amelia Wittmer, of Cannelton, Ind., were married last Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Cannelton. The ceremony was performed by Father Moss, of that city, at his residence. The bride wore white and black silk and there were two attendants, Miss Janie Wittmer, cousin of the bride, and Chas. Jackson, of this city, and friend of the groom. There were only three guests present, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wittmer and Mrs. Chas. Wittmer, all relatives of the bride.

After the ceremony the bridal party was entertained at the home of the bride's mother with a reception. Mr. and Mrs. Dowden went to Brandenburg on the Wednesday afternoon train to spend several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dowden, after which they returned to this city, where they will reside for the present.

Mr. Dowden is a machinist at the L. H. & St. L. shops and has many friends here. He came to this city about two years ago. Miss Wittmer is a pretty and charming young lady and has many friends here and at Cannelton.

Parents From Brandenburg.

Brandenburg, Ky., Dec. 1.—Special.—Miss Addie Lee Putnam approaching marriage is announced in Sunday's Courier-Journal. Her mother was Miss Alice Webb and her father was Alf Putnam, both Brandenburg people who are kindly remembered here and who wish Miss Addie Lee much happiness.

Payne-Jolly.

Hardinsburg, Dec. 1.—(Special.)—Francis P. Payne, the popular sheriff of Breckenridge county, and Miss Ada Jolly, of this place, will be married December 16, at the residence of her brother, Frank Jolly, near Hardinsburg.

Marlow-Bowlds.

Mr. Renben Marlow and Miss Pearl Bowlds, of Patesville were married at Cannelton Thursday. The groom is a son of M. V. Marlow, the stove dealer, who formerly resided in this city.

Are Married Second Time.

Mr. J. R. McFarland, of this city, a bridge carpenter on the Henderson Route, was married a second time to Miss America N. Hinton, of Owensboro, at the Hale House in Havesboro last Friday evening. They were married seven years ago but separated three years ago. Recently she wrote him asking that she might come up from Owensboro and see their little boy. This, of course, he granted, and the reunion followed.

Mrs. Moorman's Relatives.

Mrs. Minerva Moorman, of Tell City, who died in this city recently of heart trouble, and was buried in Tell City, was an aunt of Judge Wm. A. H. of Hardinsburg and of Mrs. Wm. Beavin and Mrs. Jacob Miller, of this city.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

New Gibson pictures—W. B. Oelze. Mrs. Lizzie Burnett is visiting Mrs. Taylor, at Custer.

Attractive hats with attractive prices at—Miss Judith Miller's. A. H. Murray went to Huntington, W. Va., yesterday on business.

Wallace Babbage spent Thanksgiving in Irvington with relatives.

Junoon Combs' batman at his barber shop are in running order.

Christmas line of picture frames just in—call and see Ed Gregory.

Lieut. David Murray, Jr., came home from Jackson, Ky., Monday.

Mrs. Etta Evans, of Chicago is the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Wilkerson.

Mrs. J. O. Stevens spent Thanksgiving in Owensboro with relatives.

Fred Hawkins, of near Stephensport, was in the city Tuesday on business.

First-class and clean weather-bearing $14 per thousand—J. D. Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Squires have returned from a visit to Hardinsburg.

Ed Riddle, of New York city, was visiting friends in the city yesterday.

Latest styles in hats, hats with quality retained at—Miss Judith Miller's.

Mrs. J. M. Fitch and son spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Louisville.

There are some striking covers on the Xmas magazines at J. D. Babbages.

The cover on them is not the only striking thing there is about them—just look in side.

Chas. Burnett, of St. Louis, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Burnett, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McCool and daughter, Essie, have moved to this city from Louisville.

The next time you are up town in and see the Xmas magazines at—J. D. Babbages—no charge.

Miss Judith Miller's name on a hat box means that the hat is of the best quality and latest style.

Miss Mary Moorman has returned from Louisville where she was the guest of Mrs. Jas. Brown.

For goodness sake, buy mother a pretty wall paper pattern for a Christmas gift—See Ed Gregory.

Mrs. Elia LaNeave, of Franklin Tenn., is the guest of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Ad. English.

Pretty pictures make pretty Christmas gifts. See my line of pictures and frames.—Ed Gregory.

Cures Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Deep Seated Cases, Aching Back, Mucus Discharge, Etc.

For old, obstinate, deep-seated, Kidney, Bladder and Urinary diseases take a bottle of Botanic Kidney Specific. If you have agonizing pains in back swollen legs or abdomen discharges from the urethra, neuralgia of the bladder, burning sensation or difficulty in passing water, also a frequent desire or even involuntary discharges of the urine, Catarrh of the bladder stone, Bright's disease, disagreeable odor of the urine, scanty and high colored, your kidneys and bladder are diseased. Take Botanic Kidney Specific. Soon all the aching, burning, discharges, uric acid, etc., in the back disappear. The burning sensation stops and a perfect cure is guaranteed.

Botanic Kidney Specific gives strength, power and health to the kidneys. Acts directly on the uric acid and dissolves and destroys it. Pleas eat to the taste. Especially advised for chronic cases that resist all other treatment. $1 per large bottle at my store or by express. Call or write A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, Ky.

THE STROPPERS

By FREDERIC S. ISHAM,
Author of "Under the Rose"

Copyright, 1902, by THE BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY her, glanced up. His gaze rested on her for a moment and then returned in cold contemplation to the fire seat before him.

Yet was she worthy of more than passing scrutiny. The gleam of the lamp fell upon her well-turned figure, and the glancing of her eyes could be seen in the shadow that rested on her brow beneath the crown of hair. She wore a dark lavender dress, striped with silk, a small "jaquette" of the style of the day, the sleeves being finished with lace and the skirt full and flowing. Her heavy brown tresses were arranged in a coiffure in the fashion then prevailing, a portion of the hair falling in curls on the neck, the remainder brushed forward in plaits and fastened at the top of the forehead with a simple pearl ornament.

If the young girl felt any interest in the presence of the taciturn guest she concealed it, secretly looking at him and joining but rarely in the conversation. Susan, on the other hand, resorted to sundry coquetties.

"I fear, sir, that you find our poor company intrusive, since we have forced you to become one of us?" she said, saying with her fork and thereby displaying a white tooth and her sparkling eyes.

"I am honored in being admitted to your fellowship," he returned perfunctorily.

Here the dark haired girl arose, the dinner being concluded. There was none of the usual consciousness of manner as the manager, leaning back in his chair and taking her hand, said:

"You are going to retire, my dear? That is right. We have had a hard day's traveling."

She bent her head and her lips pressed softly the old man's cheek, after which she turned from the rest of the company with a grave smile and as she passed through the doorway her flowing gown caught upon a nail in the wall. Preoccupied though he seemed, her low exclamation did not escape the ear of the soldier, and, quitting his place, he knelt at her feet, and she, with half turned head and figure gracefully poised, looked down upon him.

With awkward fingers he released the dress, and she bowed her acknowledgments. Then, when she passed on and he raised his head, his glance following her through the black looking hall, up the broad, ill lighted staircase, into the mysterious shadows which prevailed above.

Shortly afterward the tired company dispersed and the soldier sought his room.

CHAPTER II.

THE crowing of the cock awakened the French traveler, and, going to the window, he saw that daylight had thrown its first shafts upon the unromantic barnyard scene, while in the east above the billows spread the early flush of morning.

Descending the stairs and making his way to the barn, he called to Sandy, the stable boy, who was performing his ablutions by the pump, and, as he passed through the unromantic barnyard scene, while in the east above the billows spread the early flush of morning.

Descending the stairs and making his way to the barn, he called to Sandy, the stable boy, who was performing his ablutions by the pump, and, as he passed through the unromantic barnyard scene, while in the east above the billows spread the early flush of morning.

With quivering nostrils the animal appeared possessed of unquenchable spirit, but his mane and tail were less assured as he approached, with an expression of mingled anxiety and concern on his face, the young girl who the manager had addressed as Constance.

"I beg your pardon for having alarmed you," he said. "It was careless, inexcusable."

"It was a little startling," she admitted, with a faint smile.

"Only a little," he broke in gravely. "If I had not seen you just when I did—"

"You would not have turned your horse—at such a time to someone as added.

"Risk to myself? From what?" the whimsical light enounced on the soldier in his blue eyes. "Jumping a rail fence? But you have not yet said you have married me?"

The smile brightened. "Oh, I think you deserve that."

"I am not so sure," he returned, glancing down at her. "You are planting between the lower branches of the trees the sunshine touched the young girl's hair in flickering spots and crept down her dress like careworn hands of light, until her figure, passing into a solid shadow, left these glimmers prone upon the dusty road behind her. The smile brightened. "Oh, I think you deserve that."

"You are an early riser," he resumed. "Not always," she replied, "but after yesterday it seemed so. I have been out of doors and the country so lovely."

His gaze, following hers, traversed one of the billows. Below yet rested shadows, but upon the hillside a glory celestial enlivened and animated the surrounding scene.

While the soldier and the young girl were thus occupied in surveying the valley and the adjacent mountains and hammocks the horse, considering doubtless that there had been enough inaction, tapped the ground with rebellious energy and tossed his head in mutiny against such procrastination.

"Your horse wants to go on," she said, observing this equine play-on.

"He usually does," replied Saint-Prosper. "Perhaps, though, I am interrupting you? I see you have a plan in your hand."

"I was looking over a part, but I know very well," she added, moving slowly from the border of willows. Leading his horse, he followed.

His features, stern and obdurate in repose, relaxed in severity, while the deep set eyes grew less searching and guarded. This alleviation became him well, a tide of youth softening his features as a wave smooths the sands.

"What is the part?"

"Juliana, in 'The Honey-moon.' It is one of our stock pieces."

"And you like it?"

"Oh, yes," lingering where a bit of sword was set with field flowers. "But who plays the duke?" he continued.

"Oh, Mr. O'Farlarity," she answered, a suggestion of amusement in her glance. "He usually does," replied Saint-Prosper. "Perhaps, though, I am interrupting you? I see you have a plan in your hand."

"I was looking over a part, but I know very well," she added, moving slowly from the border of willows. Leading his horse, he followed.

His features, stern and obdurate in repose, relaxed in severity, while the deep set eyes grew less searching and guarded. This alleviation became him well, a tide of youth softening his features as a wave smooths the sands.

"What is the part?"

"Juliana, in 'The Honey-moon.' It is one of our stock pieces."

"And you like it?"

"Oh, yes," lingering where a bit of sword was set with field flowers. "But who plays the duke?" he continued.

"Oh, Mr. O'Farlarity," she answered, a suggestion of amusement in her glance. "He usually does," replied Saint-Prosper. "Perhaps, though, I am interrupting you? I see you have a plan in your hand."

Free Holiday Games

60 different games—all new—in one fine package of Lion Coffee
at your Grocer's.

From the window of her room Susan saw Saint-Prosper and Constance returning and looked surprised as well as a bit annoyed. Truth to tell, Miss Susan, with her capacity for admiring and being admired, had conceived a fancy as light as it was ephemeral. That touch of melancholy when his face was in repose inspired a transient desire for investigation in this past mistress of emotional analysis. But the arrival of the coach which had passed the couple soon diverted Susan's thoughts to a new channel.

The equipage drew up and a young man, dressed in a style novel in that locality, sprang out. He wore a silk hat with scarcely any brim, trousers extremely wide at the ankle, a waistcoat of the dimensions of 1745 and large watch ribbons sustaining ponderous bunches of seals.

The gallant foot touched the narrow brim of his hat to Kate, who was peeping from one window, and waved a kiss to Susan, who was surreptitiously glancing from another, whereupon, being detected, drew back hastily.

Overwhelmed by the appearance of a guest of such manifest distinction, the handmaid bowed obsequiously as the other entered the tavern with a supercilious nod.

To Mistress Susan this incident was exciting while it lasted, but when the dandy had disappeared her attention was again attracted to Constance and Saint-Prosper, who slowly approached. He passed with his horse before the front door, and she stood a moment near the little porch, on either side of which grew sweet williams, four o'clocks and larkspur.

But the few conventional words were scanty comfort for the fair eavesdropper above, the young girl soon entering the house and the soldier leading his horse in the direction of the stables. As the latter disappeared around the corner of the tavern Susan left the window and turned to the mirror.

"Lair," she said, holding a mass of blond hair in one hand and deftly coiling it upon her little head. "I believe she got up early to meet him." But Kate only yawned lazily.

In the taproom the soldier encountered the newcomer, seated not far from the fire, as though his blood flowed sluggishly after his long ride in the chill morning air. Well built, although somewhat slender of figure, this latter arrival had a complexion of tawny brown, a living sunset, as warm and glowing as the most vivid of Vandike pigments.

He raised his eyes slowly as the soldier entered and surveyed him deliberately. From a scrutiny of mere physical attributes he passed on to the more important details of clothes, noting that his sack coat was properly loose at the waist and that the buttons were sufficiently large to pass muster, but also detecting that the trousers lacked breadth at the ankles and that the hat had a high crown and a long brim from which he complacently concluded the whole was somewhat behind the shifting changes of fashion.

"Curse me, if this isn't a beastly still!" he exclaimed, stretching himself still more, yawning and passing a hand through his black hair. "Hang them, they might as well shut up their grins in the smokehouse with the bacon and hams! I feel as cured as a side of pig ready to be hung to a dry rafter."

"With which he pulled him together, went to the window, raised it and placed a stick under the frame.

"Lair tell me there's a theatrical

Head-Ache

INSTANTLY CURES

THE ONLY LIQUID REMEDY ON THE MARKET THAT IS PLEASANT TO TAKE.

Harmless, Safe at All Times, Prompt and Efficient.

CURES Headache, CURES Nervousness, CURES Dizziness, CURES Indigestion, CURES Stomach Trouble, CURES All the ailments of the head and stomach.

troupe here," he resumed, returning to his chair and relapsing into its depths. "Perhaps you are one of them?"

"I have not that honor."

"Honor!" repeated the new arrival, with a laugh. "That's good! That was one of them on the road with you. I'll be bound. You have good taste! Heigho!" he yawned again. "I'm anchored here awhile on account of a lame horse. Perhaps, though, brightening. 'It may not be so bad after all. These players promise some diversion.' At that moment his face wore an expression of airy, jocund assurance which faded to visible annoyance as he continued: "Where can that landlord be? He placed me in this inn, and washed and left me to my fate. Ah, here he is at last!" as the host approached, respectfully inquiring:

"Is there anything more I can do for you?"

"More!" exclaimed this latest guest ironically. "Well, better late than never. See that my servant has help with the trunks."

"Very well, sir, I'll have Sandy look after them. You are going to stay, then?"

"How can I tell?" returned the newcomer lightly.

The landlord looked startled.

"How far is it to Meadowton?" continued the guest.

"Forty odd miles. Perhaps you are seeking the old patron manor there. They say the heir is expected any day," gazing fixedly at the young man; "at least the antenators have received information he is coming and are preparing."

The sprightly guest threw up his hands.

"The trunks? the trunks!" he exclaimed in accents of despair. "Look at the disorder of my attire—the pride of

The Landlord bowed.

This ruffled level by the door; my wrist bands in tatters; the row of these ruffles serving my person! The trunks! I pray you!"

"Yes, sir; at once, sir! But first let me see your trunk to Mr. Saint-Prosper of Paris. Make yourselves at home gentlemen."

With which the speaker hurriedly and soon the bumping and thumping in the hall gave cheering assurance of instructions fulfilled.

"That porter is a prince among his luggage after he gets through."

Then as quiet followed the racket above—"So you're from Paris?" he asked half quickly. "Well, it's a pleasure to meet somebody from somewhere. My trunk was not so important. In Paris we may have mutual friends."

"It is unlikely," said the soldier, who nonchalantly had drawn off his riding gloves, and moved on to the next subject, the fire, with his back to the other guest. As he spoke he turned deliberately and bent his penetrating glance on his questioner.

"Curse me, if I don't feel skeptical, as I have considerable acquaintance there. In the army there's a fire eating conqueror of the ladies, Gen."

"My rank was not so important," interrupted the other, "that I numbered commanders among my personal friends."

"As you please," said the last guest carelessly. "I had thought to exchange a little gossip with you, but—importune! In my own views flows some of the blood of your country."

For the time his light manner forsook him.

"Her tumults have in a measure been cooled," he continued. "Now she is with-out a king I am well wick without a mother land. True, I was not born there—but it is the nurse the child turns to. Paris was my home—a merry abode. Alas! my vicious lord have turned on her and cast her ribbons in the mire! Untroubled by her own brats, she could extend her estates to the El Dorado of the southern seas! He had risen and, with hands behind his back, was striding to and fro. Coming suddenly to a pause, he asked abruptly:

"Do you know the Abbe Mouton?"

At the mention of that one time subtle confidant of the deposed king, now the patron of republicanism, Saint-Prosper once more regarded his companion attentively.

"By reputation, certainly," he answered slowly.

"He was my tutor and is now my frequent correspondent. Not a bad sort of mentor either!" The new arrival paused and smiled reflectively. "Only recently I received a letter from him with private details of the flight of the king and vague intimations of a scandal in the army, lately come to light."

The listener half started from his seat, and had the speaker not been more absorbed in his own easy flow of conversation than in the attitude of the other he would have noticed that quick change of manner. Not perceiving it, he resumed, returning to his chair and relapsing into its depths. "Perhaps you are one of them?"

"I have not that honor."

"Honor!" repeated the new arrival, with a laugh. "That's good! That was one of them on the road with you. I'll be bound. You have good taste! Heigho!" he yawned again. "I'm anchored here awhile on account of a lame horse. Perhaps, though, brightening. 'It may not be so bad after all. These players promise some diversion.' At that moment his face wore an expression of airy, jocund assurance which faded to visible annoyance as he continued: "Where can that landl

Holiday Gifts That Last

When you purchase a present, select something that will last, or the person receiving it is likely to soon forget the giver. The designs, beautifully finished together with great wearing qualities are combined in the

"1847 Rogers Bros."

(REMEMBER 1847)
SPOONS, FORKS, KNIVES, Etc.
The "1847" brand is a world-wide reputation as "Silver Plate that lasts." and is the only brand that is "guaranteed to last." For beautifully illustrated catalog No. 6, send 10c to ROGERS BROS. CO., NEW YORK, N. Y.

Oil Near Mooleyville.

One of our Stephens' correspondents states that two men, whose names could not be learned, have been inspecting some oil fields near Mooleyville. Oil has been discovered on top of the ground and the men are much elated over the affair believing that they may prove to be rich oil fields.

Revolution Imminent.

A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness or stomach upsets. Electric Bitters will quickly dislodge the troublesome cause. It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the Kidneys and Bowels, stimulate the Liver and clarify the blood. Run down systems benefit particularly and all the usual attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters only 50c, and that is returned if it does not give perfect satisfaction guaranteed by—Short & Haynes, Druggists.

Slight Wreck at Powers.

The up-bound freight last Wednesday left the track at Powers and several cars were ditched. Traffic on the road was delayed several hours by the accident. The wreck was caused by spreading rails.

To Cure A Cold In One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists furnish this remedy. It is quick to cure. E. W. Groves' signature is on each box. 25c.

DAN BROOKS & CO.,

LIVE STOCK
COMMISSION MERCHANTS, CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, LOUISVILLE, KY.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD

$36.60 LOUISVILLE TO CALIFORNIA. Daily to Nov. 30, 1903. Proportionately Low Rates from other points.

Only Line running through Personally Conducted Excursion Sleepers Louisville to CALIFORNIA, NEW MEXICO, ARIZONA and TEXAS.

Special Low One Way and Round Trip Rates in effect to the Southwest, on First and Third Tuesdays in each month.

BEST LINE TO HOT SPRINGS, 2 ARK.

For Folders and Descriptive Matter of the Springs and Circulars descriptive of Lands in the South, and through tickets, apply to nearest railroad agent or address

F. W. HARLOW, D. P. A., Louisville, Ky.

"ASK ME"

For information regarding the wonderful possibilities of the new country just being opened up—

"BEAUTIFUL INDIAN TERRITORY"

Our new booklet, giving full information concerning Indian allotments, settlements by Whites, coal and mineral lands, and agricultural and manufacturing opportunities forwarded on request.

ONE FARE PLUS $2.00 FOR THE ROUD TRIP.

1st & 3rd Tuesdays in each Month

Geo H Lee, G P A Little Rock, Ark. G D 31111 G P A Cincinnati, O.

OUR FIRST HUNT CLUB.

It Was Organized in Pennsylvania Away Back in 1700.

The year 1700 is far back, but it is interesting to think that the mutterings of the coming war were not yet so engrossing even then but that the sportsmen of Pennsylvania could turn their attention to a more systematic organization of their fox hunting forces and then established the first hunt club in the country, the Gloucester Hounds. Not that this was the beginning of the sport in Pennsylvania, that eminently horse loving country, for fox hunting had held a high place in the pastimes of the people many a year before. It was rather the evidence that the sport had become so important that it needed systematizing, so that districts might be thoroughly hunted in turn and contentious rivalry and clashing details be avoided.

All the early fox hunting clubs had their origin in the prevailing ownership of a greater or less number of hounds by private owners. Every considerable landowner in the south kept them, and good dogs they were, not always orthodox, according to the standard of the Belvoir and the Quorn of today, but nevertheless hounds deeded from the best English and the ropan stock and continued by judicious selection of those who showed the instincts by conformation suitable to the country in which they were called upon to work. Washington may be quoted as one of the southerners who kept hounds and hunted them too. Lafayette, moreover, sent him from France a splendid pack of French fox hounds, with qualities which still further helped to complete the most perfect animal for American fox hunting, the American hound.

From the formation of the Gloucester Fox Hound club in 1700 until today clubs have played the most important part in preserving the sport and regulating its practice. Not all clubs of equal importance, it is true, but all of the same spirit—illustrated Sporting News.

One Hundred Dollars a Box

is the value H. A. Tisdale, Sumner, S. C. places on DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He says: "I had the piles for twenty years. I tried many doctors and medicines, but all failed except DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cured me." It is a combination of the healing properties of Witch Hazel with antiseptics and emollients; relieves and permanently cures blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, hemorrhoids, and all other ailments of the rectum and anal diseases. Sold by—All Drug Co.

Origin of the Letter V.

The letter V may be regarded as the mutilated remains of one of the symbols used by the ancient Egyptians in their hieroglyphics or picture writing. A common symbol in their country was the two horned sand viper, a representation of which stood for V. The priests ultimately found that for the practical purposes of everyday life it was a waste of time to use elaborate hieroglyphics and invented a kind of shorthand to meet the occasion. In their snake was reduced to a V with a dash (V—) to represent horns and vly. The Phoenicians adopted this letter, and from them we got our V by loss of dash, leaving only the two little tails of the original picture. This is still common in Egypt and is called the one mentioned in Genesis 31:2. "Dan shall be a serpent upon the an adder in the path, that biteh horse heels, so that his rider shall backward." Travelers tell us that it is still added to this unpleasant ft.

"I enjoyed good health until about two years ago when I noticed my back began to ache frequently, it became more and more, and gradually I lost my appetite. I began to feel very nervous, and my sleep was disturbed. I tried many remedies, but all failed except DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. I took a box and my back was cured, my appetite returned, and I felt like a new man. I am now in perfect health and can do all my usual work."—J. H. Smith, New York.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores weak and sick women to sound health, by curing the local womanly diseases which are generally responsible for the failure of the general health. A woman's entire being is centered in her womanly nature. When this nature is diseased, the general health is affected by disease, when it is irregularly or a disagreeable drain; when inflammation burns and ulcers gnaw the general health will reflect the progress of disease, in increasing weakness, nervousness, backache, headache, loss of appetite and sleeplessness.

Be sure of it. It is the World's Dispensary Medical Association of Buffalo, N. Y., proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that they offer $500 reward for women who cannot be cured of Leucorrhoea, Falling of the Uterus, or any other womanly ailment. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pills regulate the stomach, liver and bowels.

OLD TIME SURGEONS.

They Had to Work Rapidly Before Anesthetics Were Used.

Before anesthetics were known the surgeon's only expedient was to abridge his patient's sufferings by working rapidly. In this the old time surgeons did wonders. They had a control and a surety in their hands that are now seldom found. One day the celebrated surgeon Maisonneuve had to amputate the leg of a poor devil who began to howl in advance. "I'll give you my watch," said the surgeon, "if the operation lasts more than a minute." The man accepted the offer, but was obliged to forego the handsome watch, as the operation took less time than it requires to describe.

To amputate an arm at the shoulder is a most difficult operation. Dr. Langenbeck of Germany did it in two minutes. A young physician who came to see him perform the operation adjusted his spectacles to his nose so as not to lose a single movement, but when the spectacles were in place the operation was over, and the severed arm lay on the floor.

Times have changed much since then. It suffices to put a bit of chloroform or ether on a compress and let the patient breathe through it for a few minutes to put him into a slumber so deep that he remains inert while the surgeon makes his incision, cuts, files the bone and sews up the flesh. On making the operation is over, and the patient knows nothing of it. Thanks to chloroform, surgeons can practice operations today which arouse our admiration.

What They Eat.

Nearly every nation has its own particular form of food, and things which some races would not eat, as the expression goes, "touch with the tongue" are considered by others as the greatest luxury.

For instance, while the Arab eats his lotus bread and dhoorra with the relish of fresh dates, the Greenlanders gorge themselves on animal fat and whale oil as the necessary means of keeping warmth in his body. Hindoos will not touch any form of flesh, but live happily on rice and rancid butter. An Englishman is supposed to value beef and bacon above all other articles of food, while the dwellers in the Apennines live on chestnuts. In ancient days the Roman emperors were accustomed to have a peacock served at all great feasts as one of the principal dainties, while in these days birds' nests and rats form choice dishes in a Chinese menu.

Some people say that snail soup is delicious, while the French assure you that there are few more delicate dishes than those made out of frogs' legs.

Big Australian Oysters.

"In the part of Australia in which I live we get oysters as big as a saucer," said a resident of Adelaide to the Washington Post. "They are twice the size of any I have seen in the United States, but in quality there is nothing to recommend them for they have no flavor and are so tough that it takes a pretty sharp knife to make any impression on them. Still there are people who manage to eat them after they have been eaten sufficiently long. In other parts of our country we have a better grade, approaching nearly to your American oyster, but hardly its equal. In fact, after my acquaintance with the Chesapeake bay products I am firmly of the opinion that in the matter of sea food the United States has no equal, and I am confident that I am backed up by any man of wide travel."

How a Bird Dresses.

As bird fashions do not change, two suits a year are quite enough for most birds, but they need to take great care of them. Each season's feather must be cleaned and looked over and the useless ones pulled out. These feathers are not packed close together, you know, but loose and in place between filled with air. When a bird wants to get warmer he lifts his feathers so that these air spaces may be larger. But if his feathers are tangled or wet and dirty he could not raise them, and soon he could not keep the head in his little body and would of course die.

A Turpid Liver.

A clogged condition of the system is one symptom of a liver out of order. Here is as good and simple a remedy as any I know, writes a physician: Get a nice lemon and cut it in half. Take one-half in a tumbler of cold water the last thing at night and the other the first thing in the morning. Half a pint of very hot water with a squeeze of lemon or lime in the morning breakfast is also good. Both remedies are well worth trying.

To Fly With The Deer.

He-Life is simply one grand chase. If you are not among the runners you must be one of the pursued. She—Will you run with the hounds or fly with the deer? He—I'll fly with you, dear, if you please.—Kansas City Journal.

Discouraged.

"There is no such thing as luck," said the sturdy, self-reliant person. "I can't contradict you," answered the patient sufferer. "All I can say is that I haven't seen it!"—Washington Star.

Cheering Report.

The Rev. Dr. Fourmy—How is your new choir getting along? The Rev. Dr. Goodman—Peculiarly. I am happy to say, as yet—Chicago Tribune.

To be perfectly just is an attribute of the divine nature. To be so to the utmost of our abilities is the glory of man.—Addison.

FOR BLOOD, STOMACH AND LUNGS TAKE DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

ONE-WAY RATES.

Every day from September 15th, to November 30th, inclusive, the Union Pacific will sell one-way tickets from Missouri River Terminals (Council Bluffs to Kansas City, inclusive) as follows:

- $20.00 to Ogden and Salt Lake City
- $20.00 to Helena and Butte, Montana
- $22.50 to Spokane and Wenatchee, Washington
- $22.50 to Huntington and Nampa, Idaho
- $25.00 to Portland, Tacoma and Seattle
- $25.00 to Vancouver and Victoria
- $25.00 to Ashland and Astoria, Oregon, via Portland
- $25.00 to San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego

Correspondingly low rates to many other California, Oregon, Washington, Montana, Utah and Idaho points. From Chicago and St. Louis proportionately low rates are in effect by lines connecting with the Union Pacific. For full information call on or address:

W. H. CONNOR, G. A.

HOLIDAY GOODS.

Watches, Rings, Diamonds, Silverware, and everything else for the holidays, at most reasonable prices. See our large illustrated catalogue mailed FREE!

C. M. WISEMAN & SON, 122 W. Market, St. Louis, Mo.

Frank Bates a Benedict.

Mr. Frank Bates, proprietor of the Commercial hotel at Havesville, and formerly of this city, was married to Miss Zula Harper, of Owensboro, at Canaan Thursday evening. After the ceremony they left for Owensboro for a visit but will reside in Havesville.

Bilious Colic Prevented.

Take a double dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as soon as the first indication of the disease appears and a threatened attack may be ward off. Hundreds of people use the remedy in this way with perfect success. For sale by—Short & Haynes.

As It Was Fainted.

There is one woman poet in New York who will read poetry carefully until the edge of a recent error wears off. She spent two days on a touching poem, the pivotal line of which read: My soul is a lightweight keeper.

When the printer finished with it the line read:

My soul is a lightweight keeper.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bear the Signature of Wm. D. Gifford

THE Fifth Avenue HOTEL

Louisville, Ky

PIKE CAMPBELL, Mgr.

The most centrally located and only first-class hotel in the city making a $2.00 rate.

Only one block from the principal shopping district and two blocks from the principal theatres.

Street cars pass the door to all parts of the city.

Everything neat and clean.

HALF RATES TO TEXAS

BOTH ONE WAY AND ROUND TRIP

via the Cotton Belt, from St. Louis, Thebes, Cairo and Memphis, first and third Tuesdays of each month, beginning October 21st. For one-way tickets.

Half the One-Way Rate, plus $2.00; round-trip tickets, one fare plus $2.00, to points in Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma and Indian Territories. Write for particulars and cost of ticket from your home town.

The Cotton Belt runs solid through Texas, equipped with the most modern and comfortable cars. These trains make quick time and direct connections for all parts of the Great Southwest. If you are seeking a place to locate, write for a free copy of our handsome illustrated booklet, "Homes in the Southwest and Through Texas With a Camera."

L. O. SCHAEFER, Traveling Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, O.
E. W. LA BEAUFRE, General Pass. and Ticket Agt., St. Louis, Mo.

M. H. GABBERT,

of Elizabethtown, Ky.

DISTRICT AGENT FOR

HOME INSURANCE CO. NEW YORK,

THE LARGEST COMPANY IN THE WORLD

This company writes FIRE, LIGHTNING and TORNADO INSURANCE, giving the most liberal contract on farm and town property. Prompt settlements guaranteed in case of loss. Prompt attention given to any matters that may come up.

J. B. HERNDON, Solicitor, Irvington, Ky.

By spending more money for advertising in the

YOUR BUSINESS BRECKENRIDGE NEWS

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

JNO. D. and V. G. BRABBE,
Editors and Proprietors.

Issued Every Wednesday.

Subscription Price $1.00 a year or $1.35 if paid at the end of year.

CARDS OF THANKS over five lines charged at the rate of 10 cents per line.
OBITUARIES charged for at the rate of 10 cents per line. Money in advance.

Examine the label on your paper. If it does not correct please notify us.
When ordering a change in the address, subscribers should give their old as well as the new address.

EIGHT PAGES

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1903.

The State election commissioners have awarded to Dr. G. H. Hunter the certificate of election to congress in the Eleventh district.

The citizens of Lexington, Ky. want the state fair held there next year.
Perhaps before asking hastily they had better interview some parties at Owensboro, as to how it could be made a financial success.

They do say, that is parties who profess to know, that Senator Marcus will undoubtedly be in the fight next year for the Republican nomination for President. If this be true then there will be war to the hilt.

Now that the fire has swept away the property on the corner of Fourth and Jefferson streets in the city of Louisville, let the owners rebuild a structure about fifteen stories high and thus come up to date in its system of art architecture.

A gentleman stopping over here a few days last week from Texas states that business is dull in that state, and wages are low. And at last old Kentucky is not the worst place in the world. They do say that a fellow can do less, and live longer here than any other place in the Union.

Dispatches from Washington say that considerable stealing has been going on in the Post office department at Washington. This department being under the control of the Republican party, represented by President Roosevelt, they will be called upon to clear the matter up in the next national campaign.

As the Christmas holidays approach the Cloverport merchants begin to arrange their wares for inspection of the trade and they are doing it with an eye to the beautiful. Always and particularly during the holidays, Clover-port is ready to show a big line of goods in this way, both useful and ornamental.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

J. F. Cheney & Co., Props., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known J.
F. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

West & Frank, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walling Kinnam & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
Hall's Catarrh Cure taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists.
Testimonials free.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

HARDINSBURG.

Amos Board was in Louisville last week.

Mrs. Lita Ford is visiting friends in Louisville.

R. T. Robertson, of Glendene, was in town Saturday.

Dr. J. B. Frymire, of Union Star,
was in town Friday.

Dr. R. H. McMullen, of McDaniels,
was in town, Friday.

Superintendent Joel. Pile is out visiting schools this week.

B. F. Beard is visiting his daughter, Mrs. A. S. Edelen, at Burgin.

Preston Ford came home Sunday on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Mary Ford.

The Rev. W. F. Hovard returned home from Asheville, N. C., last Friday.

W. S. Ball was in Louisville several days of last week on a business trip.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Walker spent several days of last week in Louisville.

John D. Shaw spent several days of last week in Louisville, the guest of friends.

Misses Maude Smythe and Lillie

Scott attended church at Clover creek Sunday.

Thomas Toney spent several days of last week at Henderson, the guest of his son.

Miss Alice Baker, who is teaching near Garfield, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home.

James G. Brodie, of Owensboro, was here several days last week, visiting his mother.

Miss George Robertson, of Glende-ne, was the guest of Miss Eva. L.
Hensley, last week.

Thomas Blythe, of Irvington, spent Friday and Saturday here with Thomas C. Toney.

Jubal Hook has purchased the interest of Fred Moorman in the firm of Hook and Moorman.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moorman have moved to town, and are occupying the Sherman property.

The directors of The Farmers Bank met here last week and declared a dividend of four per cent.

Hon. D. C. Moorman, of Glendene, and Thomas Moore, of McDaniels, were in town last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy M. Board were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Richardson at Union Star, last week.

Clayton Beard was suddenly called to Missouri last Friday, on account of the serious illness of his mother.

The Rev. W. H. Calvert was called to Stephensport Saturday to conduct the funeral of Mrs. Sallie Blaine.

The pupils of Miss Matvey Reid gave a recital at the college building the afternoon of last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Payne were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Minor P.
Payne, of Bewleyville, last week.

Dr. J. D. Walsh, of Louisville, delivered a very fine discourse at the M.
E. church, South, Thanksgiving day.

Miss Highland Roberts, a charming visitor from Cincinnati, is the guest of Misses Margaret and Roberta Brodie.

Thomas W. Bowmer came down from Louisville to spend Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. R. H. Bowmer.

Mrs. Thomas Gardner and Mrs.
Whittinghill, of Madisonville, were the guests of Mrs. R. G. Gardner, last week.

The Rev. W. H. Calvert will con-mence a protracted meeting at the M.
E. church, on the second Sunday in December.

Mr. Moorman says he thinks he will be unable to attend the inaugural ceremonies at Frankfort when Gov.
Beckham takes the oath of office.

Dr. W. P. Harvey, of Louisville, preached Sunday evening at the Republican church. The subject of his sermon was the Resurrection, which he handled in a logical and scholarly manner.

What Opie Read Has to Say About Osteopathy.

Man constantly finds something new about himself, and it is thus that the world moves. From the dawn of time he has been his own study, and is ever yet a mine of mystery unto himself.
We reverence the old, and yet we know that the school boy of to-day is wiser than the sage of long ago.

Theory becomes science, science resolves itself into a common place fact, and we wonder that we were so slow to accept so manifest a truth.

Good health is natural. Nature's aim is to be free from disease. To die before extreme old age is most unnatural. There is something wrong with the running of a machine that wears out too soon; an observant machinist can often repair the evil. Man is a machine and recently there has come into notice a school of medical manners to regulate the machine man--Osteopathy. Most cheerfully do I subscribe to this new science. I have felt the benefit of it and I do honestly believe it to be one of the most wonderful discoveries of any age.

My attention was first called to Osteopathy by a friend whose wife had been cured of insanity. Closely following I knew of a prominent man who had been cured of paralysis.
Shortly afterward while I was sick-
-Osteopathy. Most cheerfully do I
subscribe to this new science. I have felt the benefit of it and I do honestly
believe it to be one of the most wonderful discoveries of any age.

The honor of entertaining the next
W. F. M. S. meeting has been conferred on your correspondent. All are invited to dinner on December 29.

Dr. George Yenowine, who was the guest of Thos. Cain Thanksgiving week,
left for his home in the city Tuesday.
During his stay he made several successful trips over the fields after game.

Golden Rod.

Death of Mrs. Sallie Blaine.

Mrs. Sallie Blaine, aged sixty-one, an esteemed lady of Stephensport, died Friday as the result of injuries received in a fall several weeks ago. The funeral was preached Saturday by Rev.
Calvert, of Hardinsburg, and the interment was in the Atkins burying ground,
one mile from Stephensport. Mrs.
Blaine was a member of the Stephens-port Methodist church. She leaves four sons and one daughter.

FORDSVILLE.

Mrs. Helen Walker has returned from Trisler, Ky.

Mrs. Enlah Barnhill has returned to her home in Daviess county.

Mrs. Chester Sapp and little daughter, Lucile, of Owensboro, are with Mrs. Sapp's mother, Mrs. Coppage.

Misses Maude Smythe and Lillie

malices and puts the mind muscles into this trace; reduces false pressure; stimulates and relaxes or demoralizes the network of nerves that control the functions of every organ of the body. He frees the life forces, and currents. Nerve centers are manipulated by delicate, manual pressures so that by stimulating or demoralizing he controls the heart's action.
The Osteopath can regulate the action of the stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys, pancreas and other organs.
By a pressure on the vaso-motor center, which controls the caliber of the arteries, he reduces the temperature of fevers several degrees in as many minutes. Medicine points with pride to the ingenuity and bewildering complexity of its theories. "Osteopathy asks the public to look at results."

OPIE READ.

ATTENTION, KENTUCKIANS!

Special Trails For Davenport, Lincoln County, Oklahoma.
Dec. 15th.

The town, while only six weeks old,
has shown possibilities of a great future.
Its population has steadily grown from the opening day. With the finest climate, a splendid agricultural country, the best water and nothing to hinder, this will soon be among the leading towns of the great Southwest. A great variety of crops cannot be produced in any part of America. It has the advantage of the greatest railroad facilities, being at the crossing of the Frisco and Santa Fe. All products find a market at the highest prices in this place, being shipped to such centers as St.
Louis and Kansas City.

Now is the time to take advantage of the following liberal offer. Parties buying as much as Three Hundred Dollars worth of property in Davenport, for cash, will be furnished a free round-trip ticket to Davenport. Town lots and farms can be had at the most reasonable prices.

For further information, call on or address The Kentucky-Oklahoma Land and Townsite Co., Lexington, Ky., or Davenport, Oklahoma.

Bewleyville.

The new boy at Charley Anderson's is named Albert Mell.

Miss Ada Stith spent several days last week at Glendene.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gross have moved near our town.

The several sherriders keep things lively in the country.

The Messrs. Pike, of Irvington, are building a house for Roy Cain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Keith were making an out-of-town visit Sunday.

W. H. Cain, Sr., has been on the sick list quite a while, but is improving.

Miss Tucker, of Grayson county, is the guest of Miss Annie Jordan.

Frank Stith spent Thanksgiving with and Mr. Thos. P. Hardaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dury spent Thanksgiving with cousins in Louisville.

Mrs. Ellen Jolly and daughter, Maggie, were shopping in Brandenburg Saturday.

Miss Marion Lee Cain is in Louisville the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Annie Pennington.

Miss Annie Chappell has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Anderson, for several weeks.

Mrs. Edmona Perrin, who has been the guest of Mrs. Hattie Keith, has gone to visit other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Jolly and daughter spent Thanksgiving with friends in Meade county.

Mrs. Florence Cain and her brother,
Hubert, attended the Meade County School Association at Brandenburg Saturday.

The honor of entertaining the next
W. F. M. S. meeting has been conferred on your correspondent. All are invited to dinner on December 29.

Dr. George Yenowine, who was the guest of Thos. Cain Thanksgiving week,
left for his home in the city Tuesday.
During his stay he made several successful trips over the fields after game.

Golden Rod.

Death of Mrs. Sallie Blaine.

Mrs. Sallie Blaine, aged sixty-one, an esteemed lady of Stephensport, died
Friday as the result of injuries received
in a fall several weeks ago. The funeral was preached Saturday by Rev.
Calvert, of Hardinsburg, and the interment was in the Atkins burying ground,
one mile from Stephensport. Mrs.
Blaine was a member of the Stephens-port Methodist church. She leaves four sons and one daughter.

FORDSVILLE.

Mrs. Helen Walker has returned
from Trisler, Ky.

Mrs. Enlah Barnhill has returned to her home in Daviess county.

Mrs. Chester Sapp and little daughter, Lucile, of Owensboro, are with
Mrs. Sapp's mother, Mrs. Coppage.

Misses Maude Smythe and Lillie

HENDERSON ROUTE NOTES.

Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Holiday Rates.

Xmas and new year rates of one and one third fare for the round trip on Dec 24-25-31st, 1903 and January 1, 1904, good returning January 4-1904.

One way settlers rates to the Southeast at greatly reduced rates on first and third Tuesdays of each month, to November 1903 inclusive.

Round trip Home-seeker's Excursions on first and third Tuesdays of each month to November 1903 inclusive.

One way second class colonist tickets to Pacific and North Pacific coast and intermediate points date of sale to Sept 15 to Nov 30 1903 inclusive.

I will furnish meat at the following prices:

BEEF,

By the quarter, 6 and 7c.

PORK,

Hams, 10c; Shoulders, 8c;
Sides, 8c.

Retail Prices.

Choice Beef Steak 11c
Chuck Steak 10c

Roast 6 to 8c
Pork Sausage 10c

GUARD AGNEW,

The Country Butcher.

until the holidays.

Rev. J. T. Ratcliff, assisted by Rev.
Bristow, is conducting a revival in Henderson.

Mr. Harry Corniff, formerly of this place but now of Louisville, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. El. Miller, and daughter, Mrs.
Hopkins, of Louisville, are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Durbin, of New Albany, is conducting a series of meetings at the Christian church.

Cecil McElroy and daughter, Mrs.
J. W. McCarty, have gone for a ten days visit to relatives at Lebanon, Ky.

Rev. Ratcliff conducted services at the Baptist church Thanksgiving

'HONEST MIKE' BOOT —BUELL'S—

We sell EDELEN'S grand old "Honest Mike" Boot.
Twenty years' practical test crowns it KING OF ALL! The stock in the "Mike" is tanned under the old-fashioned long time cold liquor process, rendering it soft, tough and water turning.

CALL AND SEE "MIKE."

FRANK FRAIZE, Cloverport,
Ky.

Which Flour is Best for your baking, a flour of little reputation, or a flour of twenty years test by the public, made from wheat purchased from the farmer direct and only the finest of it bought and milled. This is the process by which

Cadick's Gold Dust Flour is produced. Your grocer sells it.
Made only by

Cadick Milling Co.,
GRANDVIEW, IND.

day. His subject was "The Nation's Possibilities".

Fordville is soon to have a lumber mill of some importance, provided our bus men help it along with the necessary cash.

We regret to learn of the death of the wife of Capt. John G. Keown, of Hartford. Capt. Keown is well known here and is a brother of Marshall Sam Keown. Mrs. Keown was before her marriage, Miss Bertie Morton, of Hartford.

Over the County.

A meeting at Bethel Baptist church, near Hardinsburg, has closed with twenty additions by baptism.

News has been received here that small-pox has broken out in the home of Austin LeGrand, of near Garfield.

Hand Badly Crushed

Irvington, Ky., Dec. 1.—(Special.)
—Fincoe Claycomb, one of the most energetic young men of the neighborhood, was the victim of an accident on Friday evening while at work with a corn shredder. In some unforeseen way his left hand was caught in the machinery and before he could extricate himself his hand was crushed into a shapeless mass. Mrs. Moorman and Foote attempted the limb just above the elbow. Fortunately for Mr. Claycomb he is a member of the Highland Nobles and they will help him in their way.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
Copyrights &c.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications must be strictly confidential. Address: J. P. MUNN & Co., Patent Attorneys, 319 Broadway, New York.
Send no money. We will accept of a check or money order payable to the order of J. P. Munn & Co., New York.

Scientific American.
A weekly illustrated journal. Terms, $3 a year in advance. Single copies, 10 cents.
J. P. Munn & Co., 319 Broadway, New York.

Home From Philippines.

John P. McAdams has returned from the Philippines after an absence of nearly five years, looking heavier and better. From his sabers and other antique implements of warfare, he ought to be contented to stay away from there.

Application Paper Signed.

The application paper for the organization of a company of state guards in this city, was signed by county Judge Miller last Friday. Saturday for the paper was sent to Frankfort for Gov. Beckham's consideration.

J. G. Harris returned Thursday from a visit to relatives in Canada.

Do You Feel like a Dish Rag?

—feel run down—tired—worn? Not really sick—not really well. Don't feel that you need a doctor—but do feel that you need something.
Don't know just what—so continue to drag along.
What you need at such times is

WALTHER'S PEPTONIZED PORT

a tonic food that strengthens, and invigorates the whole system, aids digestion and builds one right up. Nothing in it but Pure Pepsin and Good Port Wine—no drugs or chemicals.

Two sizes, 50 cts. and $1.00.

THE WALTHER PEPTONIZED PORT CO., Pittsburgh, Pa.

FOR SALE BY

A. R. FISHER, Cloverport, Ky.

FUNERALS IN GREECE.

They are somewhat of a shock to the American tourist.

"One thing sure to shock the American tourist is a Greek funeral," said a recently returned traveler. "It is a spectacle which most persons of convention governed decency desire to avoid, because the body of the dead is exposed in an open bier. The coffin is shallow, so that not only the face and head, but the hands and much of the body, can be seen from the side as the walk as the procession moves through the streets.

"The lid of the coffin, frequently richly upholstered and decorated with garlands and wreaths, is carried on the hearse by the undertaker. The priest, the relatives and other mourners follow, and as the ghastly spectacle moves along it is customary for bystanders to remove their head gear and cross themselves.

"In the Athen cemetery graves are rented for a term of years, just like the habitations of the quick. Only the wealthy own burial plots and this is in variably an evidence of wealth or aristocracy. The poor seldom dream of buying a lot or tomb. Such purchases would be deemed among them an unnecessary luxury.

"At the end of the term for which a grave is rented the bones are dug up, placed in a bag, labeled with the name and date and deposited in a general receptacle."—New York Herald.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz, of Detroit, Mich., says, "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For sale by Short & Haynes. Every box warranted.

Precocious Mozart.

At three years of age Mozart would amuse himself for hours together in picking out thirds on the piano with his wonderful ear; at four years he learned minuets and before six played some of his own original compositions, actually starting on a concert tour with his sister at that age.

Before three years had elapsed he had taken by storm the hearts of the most important capitals in Europe—Vienna, The Hague, Paris and London. His reputation as a composer was established by the time that he was only ten years old. Mozart fulfilled in maturity the promise of his early years, but at the age of thirty-five passed away, engaged on a regular tour, and finally laid to rest for his himself.

A Costly Mistake.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Liver or Bowel trouble. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c, at—Short & Haynes Drug store.

The Retort Counters.

Smart Passenger—Here, conductor, is my fare. I had no desire to beat the company, but I thought I would just see if I could fool you by getting busy with this newspaper.

Conductor—I saw you, but you looked as if you needed information a good deal worse than that the company needs money, so I just let you read.—Baltimore American.

A glass of two of water taken half an hour before breakfast will usually keep the bowels regular. Harsh cathartics should be avoided. When a purgative is needed, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are mild and gentle in their action. For sale by Short & Haynes.

The Sailors' Psalm. How many people—landsmen, at all events—are aware that one of the Psalms is often called the sailors' psalm? It is of course Psalm cxxxv, wherein occur the beautiful and familiar words, "They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters—these see the works of the Lord and his wonders in the deep." The psalm is usually read as part of the simple services which take place on Sundays on ships at sea. For that reason it is known as the sailors' psalm.—London Chronicle.

Pains in the Back

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning it is extremely hazardous to neglect, so important is a healthy action of these organs. They are commonly attended by loss of energy, lack of courage, and sometimes by gloomy foreboding and despondency.

"I had pains in my back, could not sleep and when I got up in the morning felt worse than the night before. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and now I can sleep and get up feeling rested and able to do my work. I attribute my cure to Hood's Sarsaparilla."—Mrs. M. N. Perry, care H. S. Cleveland, Pike Road, Ark.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills
Cure kidney and liver troubles, relieve the back, and build up the whole system.

DR. FENNER'S KIDNEY and Backache CURE

All diseases of Kidneys, Bladder, and Urinary Organs, such as Gleet, Stricture, Dropsy, Female Trouble, etc., cured by this medicine. It is a cure for you. If necessary write Dr. Fenner, who has spent a long time curing such cases as yours. All consultations free. "I suffered from kidney and bladder trouble until life was not worth living. I began using Dr. Fenner's Kidney and Backache Cure and in a short time noticed a great improvement. The soreness left my back and I was soon permanently cured."—T. J. Ryan, Druggist, 50c. St. Ask for Cook Book—Free For Sale by Short & Haynes

THE HOME IN FRANCE.

It is Truly an Admired to Life on

The father and mother in Paris eat at home when they do not eat out, but absolutely no informal social sort of conversation invades the apartment, more than anything else, is the factory in which is produced whatever the family needs for life outside. A vast amount of sewing is done here. French girls of even wealthy parents, after they finish school, attend courses of dressmaking and millinery and to a great extent the industry which makes the French woman a model of good dressing, to be followed by the world, is carried on by the women of the family in what is called the boudoir. If the French knew the meaning of the word.

A reception day is rigorously kept, and much entertaining at dinner and dejeuner may be done, but always of a formal character. A person having the penetrating qualities of a book agent might venture to try "dropping in" on a French woman on a day when she is not regularly receiving, but in the natural course of ordinary social experience in Paris this would never happen, says Flora McDonald Thompson in Harper's Bazar.

Such order of living readily permits great economy. One has not to waste time in going to church, but must be in daily preparation for the unexpected guest. Six days of the week a French woman may run her sewing machine in the middle of her saloir if she likes, secure from the interruption of chance callers. It is said that the chief function of the petit salon of a Paris apartment is to provide storage room for half gowns which on reception days are taken down from the chandelier and locked up in a bedroom till the guests have departed.

Good For Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heats and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissue. Dr. Armstrong, of Delhi, Tex., prescribed it daily and says there is no better cough remedy made. Sold by—All Drug Co.

Read Less, Think More.

"Move fast and staid articles would be recovered if the losers would adopt different methods in advertising for their property," said a headquarters detective the other day. "Of course honest persons do not haggle over the remuneration for returning a pocket, a dog or anything else. But every one is not built that way. It may sound very nice to say, 'Liberal reward if returned to owner,' but there are different kinds of liberality. The sum usually divided is the reward of the owner when he sees his property before him, and no one knows this better than the finder.

"It is far more effective to set forth a definite sum in the advertisement. Five or twenty-five dollars means more than a vague promise to be real generous. Of course there are cases when it is not wise to be too explicit, but in nine cases out of ten a stated sum will bring better results than an indefinite offer. This is really always true with watches with the owner's monogram engraved on the case, as the pawnbroker refuses to loan so much on articles so easily identified."—New York Press.

Laxative Bromo Quinine

Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 2 Days on every box 25c

Reverend For Lost Property.

"Move fast and staid articles would be recovered if the losers would adopt different methods in advertising for their property," said a headquarters detective the other day. "Of course honest persons do not haggle over the remuneration for returning a pocket, a dog or anything else. But every one is not built that way. It may sound very nice to say, 'Liberal reward if returned to owner,' but there are different kinds of liberality. The sum usually divided is the reward of the owner when he sees his property before him, and no one knows this better than the finder.

"It is far more effective to set forth a definite sum in the advertisement. Five or twenty-five dollars means more than a vague promise to be real generous. Of course there are cases when it is not wise to be too explicit, but in nine cases out of ten a stated sum will bring better results than an indefinite offer. This is really always true with watches with the owner's monogram engraved on the case, as the pawnbroker refuses to loan so much on articles so easily identified."—New York Press.

WALL STREET BROKERS.

What the Public Pays to Keep Them in Business.

Wall street brokers hold themselves million miles higher in the public estimation than the average bookmaker. And they are right. They are the creme de la creme of finance. Bookies are the scum. Yet there are among bookmakers, and there are among brokers, some big operators, supporting brokers by their commissions. There are 1,100 members of the Stock Exchange, and these represent brokerage and commission firms whose partnerships aggregate no less than $1,452,400,000 in assets. It is safe to venture the assertion that each member of the exchange and his partners would turn up the nose at an income of less than $20,000 a year. Hence:

At $20,000 each year these brokers clean up net about $23,000,000. There are some 500 Stock Exchange firms which pay $3,000,000 annually for the rent of their offices. These firms employ 7,000 clerks and assistants, bookkeepers, runners, etc., at an average wage of $1,500, which makes $10,500,000. Thus we have in three items alone $42,500,000 that must come out of the pockets of customers who keep the market in motion. That is to say the public pays the sum of $42,500,000 annually for the privilege of supporting in splendid style $432 people who tell them they may try their hands at telling which way a stock will go.—New York Times.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKES.

Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Ashburnham, Ont., April 28, 1908. "I think it is only right that I should tell you what wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any more, and I was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a God sent remedy."

Respectfully yours,

E. A. Langford, M. A., Rector of St. Luke's Church.

To Chamberlain's Medicine Co.

This remedy is for sale by Short & Haynes.

Value Each Mile at $9,000.

Each mile of the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis railroad is valued at $9,000 by the Kentucky Railroad Commission. The Louisville division is valued at only half this amount, $4,500.

The Kentucky State Railroad Commission completed the work of fixing the assessment of the various roads of the State last week and filed their report yesterday with Gov. Beckham.

The report shows that only twenty-four miles were constructed the past year, but all the roads made a good increase in earnings.

The Saliva.

The poisons of some of the common and also some of the most loathsome diseases are frequently contained in the saliva. In such case anything that is moistened by the saliva of the infected person may, if it touches the face of another, convey disease, more direct the contact the greater the danger. It is believed that much can be done to prevent contagion by teaching habits of cleanliness. But if such instruction is to be of any use it must be continuous. The teacher in the public school should notice and correct violations of these rules as habitually as violations of the more formal school rules are corrected.

Enough Said.

Two Boston ladies strolling along a road just outside of the borough came upon the first milestone. On it was written, "I am from Boston." Having never ventured so far from their native place before, they mistook the stone for a sepulchral monument. "How touching!" they exclaimed. "How simple! How human! 'I'm from Boston.' What more needed to be said? So the dead speak!"—Rocheester Post-Express.

The Ambitious Chamber.

The Guide—Well, here we are on the peak at last.

The Tourist—Oh, guide, do you mean to say we can get no higher? Don't say that I can ascend no further.

The Guide—Well, you can climb up a slipshod rock you want. It's seven feet long.—Chicago Tribune.

Her Preference In Games.

"Does your daughter play smart?" inquired the young man with gold glasses.

"I think she does," answered Mrs. Curott affably. "But I think she prefers whist."—Washington Star.

An Most Cats Get Them.

Elise, a French girl, told a story about "Puss In Boots." How could a cat have seven legue boots?

Robbie—Maybe a giant threw 'em at him one night.—Philadelphia Press.

TRAMPS ARE WELL POSTED.

As a General Rule They Are Careful and Constant Readers.

Most tramps are omnivorous readers, and they are posted upon a wide range of topics. In speaking of tramp readers a man who has had a chance to study these peripatetic students said the other day:

"You hardly ever find a genuine hobo who is an ignoramus. You find lots of men who are tramping who I should judge they haven't intelligence enough to earn a living, but I am speaking of the real hobo, who is a wanderer from choice and who would not work if he had the chance. These fellows are pretty wise, I can tell you. They can tell you more about what is going on in European politics than any professor can, and they know almost everything that is coming off in our own country for the next six months.

"When you are traveling you will notice the hoboes sitting along the railroad track reading a frayed and soiled newspaper. Often you will see them picking up the loose papers lying in the streets, and I do not believe I ever saw traces of a tramp's camp fire around which there was not left one or more old newspapers, where they lay and read, and where they were reading. Then the tramps have a sort of traveling library, too, that few people have ever heard of. If one tramp finds an old magazine he will read it and then pass it to some other tramp. It keeps going the rounds in this way until it is worn out. If one picks up a book some place it does service in tramping for months.

"I never saw a tramp with a fresh paper in his hand, but I have never run across one of the wanderers that could not read. They were a careful and constant reader."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

CASTORIA.

Beats the Signature of Castoria.

A City of Roof Gardens.

The majority of the houses in Buenos Ayres have but one story, whose flat roof serves all the purposes of Yankee lawns and dooryards. While the patios are frequently utilized as dining and sitting rooms. It is the universal custom to promenade in the cool of the day on the house tops, to sit there at noon and evening, enjoying the refreshing breezes, extensive views and varied panorama in the street below.

The children did their favorite playground on the roof tops. There the nurses bring their infant charges, the seamstresses' bedraggled flunies to put in order their clothes are dried and ironed and, during the "heated time" of the dewless latitudes thousands bring up their beds and nap with the starry sky for a counterpane.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours. If a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys, if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also evidence of it.

convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

Write to Dr. J. D. Babbage.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fully every wish in curing hemorrhoids, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water in the bladder in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up during the day, and to get up many times during the night.

The extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures in the glory of numerous cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Perfect Health vs. Dyspepsia

The race is to the swift; the battle to the strong; and the good things of life to the man who dominates men and conditions through the magnetism of perfect health. The unhappy dyspeptic suffers so much from sick headache, loss of appetite, indigestion, constipation, nervousness and wakefulness that he is mentally and physically unable to master life's problems and difficulties in such a manner as to win the confidence and esteem of his associates. Do not thus forfeit your chances of social and commercial advancement. If you are suffering any of the symptoms of Dyspepsia, put your soul on the "Road to Good Health" by taking

DR. THACHER'S LIVER AND BLOOD SYRUP

Take it right straight along for a while and you will know what it is to wake up refreshed, to thoroughly enjoy a hearty breakfast, and to take up the day's duties with a healthy energy and a clear head. The experience of Mr. T. L. Speed, Miss. is sufficient to convince any sufferer that Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup is the remedy upon which he can depend to cure even the worst case of Dyspepsia or Stomach trouble. Could not sleep well at night; in fact, had no energy to work or even walk around. I felt like I was packing a heavy load and was unable to get it off. Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup, which helped me from the first dose. By the time I had taken one and one-half bottles I was feeling like a new man, and at this time my appetite is good, sleep well, and feel refreshed on waking in the morning.

Ask your dealer for it today. Dry form 25 cents. Liquid form 50 cents and $1.00. Send us two-cent stamp for sample bottle and write our Consultation Department for free, confidential advice.

THACHER MEDICINE COMPANY, Chattanooga, Tenn.

AMERICA'S

BEST

Editorially Fearless.

Consistently Republican.

News from all of the world—Well written, original stories—Answers to queries—Articles on Health, the Home, New Books, and on Work About the Farm and Garden.

The Weekly Inter Ocean

Is a member of the Associated Press, the only Western Newspaper receiving the entire telegraphic news service of the New York Sun and special cable of the New York World—daily reports from over 2,000 special correspondents throughout the country.

YEAR ONE DOLLAR

Subscribe for Brockbridge News and the Weekly Inter Ocean, one Year, both papers for $1.60.

Bert Beavin is painting Fred Owen's new residence at Jolly Station.

THE MECHANICS BANK

OWENSBORO, KY.

Pay interest on Time Deposits as follows:

5 per cent one year

4 per cent 6 months.

Send as a check and in return we will issue a Time Deposit note and mail you for the amount:

Stockholders are liable for all they are worth.

Jrd St. Opposite Court House.

B. H. POINDEXTER, Cashier.

V. G. BABBAGE,

Attorney-at-Law.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.

Many years experience in settling estates. All collections reasonable.

Cloverport, Kentucky.

BACK NUMBERS.

Black Cat, 3 for

Brooklyn Magazine, 5c

10 Story Book, 5c

McClure's, 5c

Ladies Home Journal, 5c

American Kitchen, 5c

Harper's Bazar, 5c

Outlook, 5c

Designer, 5c

Six Hopkins, 5c

Competition, 5c

Frank Leslie's, 5c

Household Engineer, 5c

Pearson's, 5c

Everybody's, 5c

Delimitator, 5c

The retail price of a single number of any of the above magazines is 10 and 15c.

Mail Orders will be filled if Postage is Sent.

JNO. D. BABBAGE.

A Japanese Custom.

In Japan the well to do have almost always in their houses one room called the "room of the inspiring view."

Its essential is a beautiful view, and taste is catholic in Japan, and the delightful view may be a blossoming cherry tree, a glimpse of a river, a miniature garden or only the newly fallen snow.

In this delightful country they got up parties to visit the maple trees in the glory of autumn, and the fresh, untrodden snow, as in this country one gives their parties and dinners.

Mushroom hunters are a fashionable hobby, and a glimpse of a river, a miniature garden or only the newly fallen snow.

In the estimation of these eternal children, bed the gentleman when she is within doors.

H. DeH. MOORMAN,

Attorney at Law.

HARDINSBURG, KY.

Will practice his profession in all of the Courts of Brockbridge and adjoining counties, specifically including the courts of record, and criminal practice. License to practice in United States District courts. Office over Sauls & Hardinsburg.

Chintz Royalty,

Practical Surveyor,

also Notary Public.

I can survey your Lands,

write your Deeds and take the acknowledgement at your home.

This saves you trouble and cost.

Your Patronage Solicited.

Address me at Hardinsburg, - Ky.

J. L. MOORMAN,

DENTIST.

Office over Oles's Hardware Store.

Prompt attention to all kinds of Dental Work. Special attention to

FINE GOLD BRIDGES AND

R. OWEN AND BRIDGE WORK.

Prices Moderate. Satisfaction Guaranteed

GEO. H. CASPERKE,

Jewelry and Insurance.

Best policies for least money in Life, Fire, Tornado and Accident Insurance.

Brandenburg, Ky.

Cloverport Planing Mill

GREGORY & CO. Prop.

LUMBER,

DOORS,

SASH,

BLINDS,

DOOR AND WINDOW SCREENS,

SHINGLES,

LATHS,

LIME,

BRICK,

CEMENT, ROOFING, ETC.

COLONIST RATES

VIA THE

FRISCO SYSTEM

One-half rate plus two dollars from Saint Louis, Kansas City and Memphis to points in

MISSOURI,

ARKANSAS,

INDIAN TERRITORY,

OKLAHOMA,

TEXAS,

LOUISIANA.

This rate is in effect on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Full information furnished upon application to any passenger agent of the company, or

PASSENGER TRAFFIC DEPARTMENT

F

IRVINGTON.

Miss Annie L. Bandy goes to the city on business today.

Mr. Truman was in our town recently calling on friends.

Walter Herndon has gone to Louisville to take a position.

Miss Ellen Munford is in the city for a visit to the Misses Tydings.

Mr. Alexander is home again after a lengthy absence in his old home.

Mrs. Henry Ashcraft was called to Cloverport Friday to visit relatives.

H. H. Kemper has returned from Frankfort, where he went to see a sister.

Mr. "Billy" Keith is assistant clerk at W. E. Brown's store in Mr. Brown's absence.

Mrs. John Halden entertained Friday in honor of her guests, the Misses Williams.

Taylor Orendorf Perrin, of Louisville, was the guest of the McGlothlins during the past week.

Hubert Piggott came home Wednesday to enjoy the treat at this time and to take a fine hunt.

Nellie Mayor and Rhoe Weaver are spending sometime with their parents at Washington Place.

Misses Eva Herndon and Mabel McGlothlin enjoyed a visit to Fordville the company of Mrs. Montgomery.

Miss Hannah Hendrick has returned from Louisville, where she spent two weeks with her sister, Mrs. McCall.

Mrs. Nanette Wathens' many friends are delighted to welcome her home again after several months' absence.

Mrs. Leon Moorman and Lewis Beckett enjoyed a beautiful feast at the old Moorman homestead in Meade county.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Chamberlain have returned from Grayhampton, where they visited Mrs. Chamberlain's family.

Misses Norris Kurtz, Nan Lyddan and Cera Lee Anderson attended church here on Thanksgiving day and enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. John L. Henry.

The newly formed Baptist association, known as the Breckenridge association, appointed the Rev. J. T. Lewis to represent them at the Southern convention.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Bailey, assisted by Miss Lyons served an elegant dinner on Thanksgiving day to the following guests: Mrs. Mary Munford, Misses Emily and Ermine Munford, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wrathe and family, J. M. Mudd and children.

You Know What You Are Taking.

When you take Grove's Tasteless Chili Tonic because the formula is plain, simple and pure, you know what you are taking. It is a tonic in a tasteless form. No cure. No pay. Price 5c.

BRANDENBURG.

The Rev. J. L. Hart returned last Saturday from Virginia.

Brandenburg Normal will have an entertainment Christmas night.

Mr. Martin, an experienced thurston, is at the corner drug store.

Mrs. Z. T. Herndon has left after a visit to her sister, Miss Jen Hardin.

Dr. Lon Nevitt and wife and Dr. Zimmerman were guests of Mrs. E. Wimp.

Claude Hardin is at the corner drug store ready to hand you out holiday goods.

Dr. P. W. Fode was in town last week looking in excellent health and spirits.

Mrs. B. F. Hook has returned to Leavenworth after a visit to her mother.

Mrs. Ella Gregory and little daughter, Dorothy, came up from Cloverport for Thanksgiving.

The Meade County Teacher's association.

READ THIS.

Bowling Green, Ky., June 12, 1901. Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir—I have used your Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, for kidney and bladder troubles, and can cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from kidney and bladder trouble.

Respectfully,
J. H. Hespen.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emission, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women; regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist it will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. Box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists. Office, 2931 Olive street.

THE FIRST ADVERTISER.

PROBABLY several hundred million dollars are being spent each year in this country upon advertising. Yet the advertising industry is in its infancy, and the men of trade and commerce are just beginning to wake up to the truth that the possibilities of advertising are the greatest factor in modern business.

The first advertiser was the man who sought out the place where the most people passed and hung out a sign over his establishment. And the last advertiser will be able to do no more. The change has come in the nature of the place where the most people pass and in the character of the sign. The modern means of locomotion and the printing-press have made the crowd that passes a particular door in a particular street of comparatively small importance. For the merchant, or the enterprising manufacturer who is merchant also, can find a far vaster crowd to pass before and gaze at his sign. And if he knows how to word that sign he will have his hands full taking care of those who want his goods.

The wise seller of today asks himself two questions: Where will my sign meet the eyes of the people of the kind I wish to meet? What sort of a sign will attract most eyes?—Saturday Evening Post.

cation met here last Saturday with a good attendance.

The Rev. T. L. Crandell was ahead last week for the rubberized buggy. The contest waxed warm.

Darnell Dowden and his bride from Cannelton came up to be with his parents for Thanksgiving.

The stores are already assuming a holiday attire and we are already feeling the Christmas cheer.

In last Saturday's Louisville Times is a picture of the officers of the county and fiscal courts of Meade.

Protracted services will begin here next Monday night. Rev. Hart will be assisted by Mr. W. S. Thomas.

Mrs. Annie Herndon, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Herndon and Mrs. S. P. Parks were guests of Mrs. J. W. Lewis.

Misses Bettie and Lillie Clarkson and Chas. Casperke were guests of Messdames Chas. and George Casperke.

Mrs. Henry Cowley and Mrs. James Bondurant spent several days in Louisville with Mrs. Beall (Crandell).

Mrs. Dan Roberts, Mrs. Z. T. Herndon, Miss Jen Hardin were to dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hardin.

Miss Rosebud Moorman, of Glendene, is the guest of Miss Linnie Moorman, who entertained for her Friday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Pusey and her grandmother were with Mrs. Pusey, who returned to Louisville with them to spend several days.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bottell lost their infant daughter last Wednesday. She was only a few days old and had been frail from birth.

I have catalogues of the seasons of 1903-1904 from the Weltner Conservatory of Music, St. Louis, sent by Miss Mary Taylor now a pupil there.

Last Sunday was the first of the four Sundays of Advent to be observed by Catholics and Episcopalians. 'Christ is near Christmas. He will be here.'

James Shacklett and bride, of Louisville, Mr. Henry Shacklett and wife and Chas. Cecelius, of New Albany were with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Shacklett Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hamilton had turkey dinner for a few friends. Their daughter, Miss Wathena, is at home from Chicago University, where she is studying oratory.

Scott Grinnell spent Sunday in Louisville with Beall and Gough Grinnell and then went on to Grayson Spring station to take charge of Bassett & Stone's drug store.

The New- is a temperance way. It is fair and square on any subject. When it comes to politics it willingly gives opinions on either side. It furnishes all the home and county news and from a distance.

Miss Claudia Stith and W. E. Brown were married last week in Louisville. Miss Brown often visited her sister, Mrs. Wm. Bowley, when she was a resident of this place, where she is remembered as quite a charming lady.

The ladies of the Catholic Church will hold a bazar Dec. 23-24, in a room on Main street. Fancy articles, useful ones too, eatables, in fact anything and everything salable in these lines will be acceptable.

The union Thanksgiving services at the Methodist church were enjoyed by a few Rev. Crandell preached practical appropriate sermon, and the choir gave good selections. The week in prayer held by the Woman's Missionary society was splendidly attended. There are only ten members on the roll, whereas the minister remarked there should be fifty. From some cause the subject here is very lukewarm and yet the command is plain.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Johnson-Goolbill.

Mr. James L. Johnson and Miss Nancy M. Goolbill, of near this city, were married Thursday at the home of James L. Johnson by Rev. L. Burdette, of this city, in the presence of a number of friends.

8

Cents performs miracles at our store in buying box stationery. For just 8 cents—now think of it—you can buy a box of stationery that will answer the following description to the letter or the box of paper is yours absolutely free:

Ninety-six pages of paper six inches long by five inches wide, ruled, in any color you may wish neatly tied with dainty ribbon, folded in the latest manner and is stylish for either man or woman. Forty-eight envelopes to correspond with paper in color and size. A sample will be sent for a one-cent stamp to pay postage. Mail orders filled if postage is sent.

Jno. D. Babbage,

Cloverport, Ky.

Cloverport Foundry & Machine Company,

CLOVERPORT, KY.

One purpose of our Company is to help people who have trouble with their mechanical devices. A general repair shop ours is, where we have the necessary equipments to execute the work we do with the highest accuracy. At your home, business place or work shop now there are probably some mechanical contrivances that are badly in need of overhauling—probably you are having trouble with your machinery which you can not remedy yourself. Now this is the piece of machinery that is costing you money and will until you have it properly fixed. We will have a representative call and inspect your machinery upon request. Such inspections are mutually beneficial. A postal card request will do.

Bargains at the FAIR

See prices below. They can't be equaled anywhere, so call quick and get the benefit of them.

Dry Goods.

Prints 4c and 5c per yard,
Heavy Domestic 5 1/2c
Canton Flannel 3c and 4c
Henrietta 12 1/2c and up Outing Cloth 5c to 15c
Bed Ticking 6c to 16c
Shirting Cottons 5c to 10c
Jeans 10c to 40c
Ginghams 5c and up
Satinets 10c and up
Percales 6c to 10c
Scrim 5c to 10c
Towling 4c to 10c
White Table Linen 20c to 50c
Red Table Linen 17c to 50c.

Boots and Shoes.

Men's Brogans, 90c up per pair.
Men's Calf Skin, plain or pointed toe, $1.25.
Boots, $2 to $5.
Men's Fine Shoes, $1.25 to $5.

Clocks.

8 day strike and alarm, $2.50.
1 " alarm 90c.

Capes, Jackets.

Ladies' Capes 40c to $5.00 each
" Jackets $2.50 to 10.00.
Misses " 1.50 to 3.00.

Clothing.

Extra sizes in pants.
Mens' Suits $3.50 to $15.00
Youths' " $3.00 to $8.00.
Child " 65c to $3.50.

Rain Coats.

At prices from $1.25 to 5.50
Some of them I guarantee not to leak, if they do I will refund the money.
Overcoats $2.50 to $20.00.

Underwear.

I can suit you in quality and prices from the cheapest to the best.

Queensware.

I have the largest stock in the county and the nicest selection and prices to suit everybody from the cheapest to the best.

Flannels.

All Wool Red Flannels 18c up,
All Wool Gray Flannels 25c up
All Wool White Flannels 20c up
Waist Flannels 25c to 50c

Felt Boots.

6 to 11, $1.97.

Leather Boots.

Men's, 6 to 11, $1.50 up.
Boys', 10 to 2, $1.25 up.
Child's, 7 to 10, 80c per pair.

Towels.

White Towels 10c per pair,
Linen " 20c to $1 per pair.

Lap Robes.

From 25c to $4.00 each.

Carpets.

From 15c to 50c per yard.

Window Shades.

From 10c to 50c each complete.

Sewing Machines.

5 Drawer Machine, $14.00.
5 Drawer Drop Head Machine $16.00.

Warranted by Factory for five years.

Picture Frames

ALL SIZES

At from 25 cents to $4.00 each.

Salt $1.05 per bbl.

GROCERY DEP'T.

I have everything you can call for in that line. A hungry man or woman can supply their wants. Call and examine my line. We certainly can please you. Call early and get first choice.

W. T. TILFORD,

Proprietor,

CLOVERPORT, KENTUCKY.

Thanksgiving Recitations.

Several pupils in the primary department of the city school recited selections about Thanksgiving last Wednesday afternoon. The following were those who recited: Lucy Adams, Susette Sawyer, Claudia Pate, May Lamb, Elizabeth Tilford, Homer Morrison, Frons Dean, Beale Keys, Audry Perkins, Pearl Agnew, Lillian Harper, Katherine Coombs, Annie Bell Morrison, Clara Newton, Lillie Harper, Willie Kinsler, May Pate, Jennette Barn, Mike Tecker, Catherine Coombs, Martha Miller, Victor Harper and Anil Pate. The pupils from the other rooms were seated in Mr. Wroe's room and heard the recitals.

Wathen Gets Three Years.

Chas. K. Wathen, formerly of Skillman, was sentenced to three years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for counterfeiting, by the Federal court at Owensboro last week. Wathen pled guilty to the charge of raising a $1 bill to $10 and passing it on a woman in Grayson county, and asked the court for mercy on the ground that he is an old man. Wathen was arrested in the early part of the fall over in Grayson by United States Marshal Gilliland. Wathen claimed that he was a Baptist preacher.

Mrs. Sash Simmons Dead.

Irvington, Ky., Dec. 1.—(Special.)—Mrs. Sash Simmons died Sunday night at 8 o'clock after an illness lasting many months. Her funeral will be preached today at 10:30 o'clock and the interment will be at the old Sandy Hill church, of which she was a consistent member. Mrs. Simmons was a Miss Bruner, of Hancock county, and was a sister of Mr. Simmon's first wife.